

THANKING GOD FOR KEEPING US ALIVE

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, שֶׁהַחַיִּינוּ וְקִיַּמְנוּ וְהִגִּיעָנוּ לְזֶמַן הַזֶּה!

Baruch Atah Adonai, Elohaynu Melech HaOlam, she-he-chay-yah-nu, v'kee-mah-nu v'hi- gee-ah-nu laz-man ha-zeh! Blessed are You O Lord our God, King of the universe, who has kept us alive, sustained us and enabled us to reach this season!

PRAISING THE GOD WHO IS WORTHY TO BE PRAISED

בְּרַכּוּ אֶת יְיָ הַמְּבֹרָךְ!
Barchu et Adonai Hamvorach!

בְּרוּךְ יְיָ הַמְּבֹרָךְ לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד!
Baruch Adonai Hamvorach l'olam va'ed!

Bless the Lord who is to be acknowledged as far greater than we are!
Blessed be the Lord who is blessed forever and ever!

Blessed and praised, glorified and honored, magnified and exalted be the supreme King of Kings, the Most Holy One, blessed be He, who is the God of Israel, who is Three and yet One, who is the first and the last, and beside Him there is no God! Praise Him in the Heavens and rejoice in His presence on Earth! Blessed be His glorious Majesty forever and ever!

PSALM 47

All nations, clap your hands! Praise God with shouts of joy! The Lord is the Most High, the revered great King over all the Earth! He subdued peoples and chose for us our land, the pride of Jacob He loved. God has gone up amidst shouting, the Lord amid the sound of the shofar. Sing to our God, sing! God is King over all the Earth! Sing hymns of praise skillfully. God reigns over the nations; God is upon His holy throne. The nobles of the people are assembled, the people of the God of Abraham. The defense of the world belongs to God, the Sovereign who is greatly exalted.

PSALM 81

Sing for joy to God our strength; shout joyfully to the God of Jacob! Raise a song, strike the timbrel, the sweet sounding lyre with the harp. Blow the shofar at the new moon, at the full moon, on our feast day. For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob. He established it for a testimony in Joseph, when He went throughout the land of Egypt.

Have mercy on me O God, according to Your unfailing love; according to Your great compassion blot out my transgressions! Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin! For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me. Against You, You only, have I sinned and done what is evil in Your sight, so that You are proved right when You speak and justified when You judge.

Surely I have been a sinner from birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me. Cleanse me with hyssop, and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow. Hide Your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquity. Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me from Your presence or take Your Holy Spirit from me. Restore to me the joy of Your salvation and grant me a willing spirit to sustain me. Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, and sinners will turn back to You. Save me from blood-guilt, O God, the God who saves me, and my tongue will sing of Your righteousness!

O Lord open my lips, and my mouth will declare Your praise! You do not delight in sacrifice, or I would bring it; You do not take pleasure in burnt offerings. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, You will not despise. In Your good pleasure make Zion prosper; build up the walls of Jerusalem. Then there will be righteous sacrifices; whole burnt offerings to delight You; then bulls will be offered on Your altar.

I will extol You, my God, O King; and I will bless Your Name forever and ever. Every day I will bless You, and I will praise Your Name forever and ever. Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised; and His greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall praise Your works to another, and shall declare Your mighty acts. On the glorious splendor of Your majesty, and on Your wonderful works I will meditate. And men will speak of the power of Your awesome acts; and I will tell of Your greatness.

They will eagerly utter the memory of Your abundant goodness, and will shout joyfully of Your righteousness. The Lord is gracious and merciful; slow to anger and great in love. The Lord is good to all, and His mercies are over all His works. All Your works will give thanks to You O Lord, and Your godly ones will bless You. They will speak of the glory of Your kingdom, and talk of Your power; to make known to the sons of men Your mighty acts, and the glory of the majesty of Your kingdom.

Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and Your dominion endures throughout all generations! The Lord sustains all who fall, and raises up all who are bowed down. The eyes of all look to You, and You give them their food in due time. You open Your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing. The Lord is righteous in all His ways, and kind in all His deeds. The Lord is near to all who call upon Him, to all who call upon Him in truth. He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him; He will also hear their cry and will save them. The Lord keeps all who love Him; but all the wicked He will destroy. My mouth will speak the praise of the Lord; and all flesh will bless His holy Name forever and ever!

Praise the Lord! Praise God in His sanctuary; praise Him in His mighty expanse! Praise Him for His mighty deeds; praise Him according to His excellent greatness! Praise Him with the shofar; praise Him with harp and lyre! Praise Him with timbrel and dancing; praise Him with stringed instruments and pipe! Praise Him with loud cymbals; praise Him with resounding cymbals! Let everything that has breath praise the Lord! Praise the Lord!

RECITING THE SHEMA

For there is one God, and there is one Mediator and High Priest between God and men, the man Messiah Yeshua, who is also Immanuel - God with us. The Son of God gave Himself as a ransom for all, and that testimony took place at the proper time. For even if there are so-called gods, whether in Heaven or on Earth, yet for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we exist for Him; and there is one Lord, Messiah Yeshua, by whom are all things, and we exist through Him. When He was asked by an expert in the Torah, "Which is the most important commandment of them all?", Yeshua answered that the most important commandment is:

שְׁמַע יִשְׂרָאֵל יְהוָה אֶחָד. בְּרוּךְ שֵׁם כְּבוֹד מַלְכוּתוֹ לְעוֹלָם וָעֶד!

Shema Yisrael Adonai Elohaynu Adonai echad. Baruch shem kivod malchuto l'olam va-ed! Hear O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is One. Blessed be His glorious Majesty forever and ever!

וְאָהַבְתָּ אֶת יְהוָה אֱלֹהֶיךָ בְּכָל לִבְבְּךָ וּבְכָל נַפְשְׁךָ וּבְכָל מְאֹדְךָ. וְאָהַבְתָּ לְרֵעֶךָ כָּמוֹךָ!

V'ah-hav-ta et Adonai Elohecha b'chol l'vav-cha, u'v'chol naf-sh'cha, u'v'chol me'oh-deh-cha. V'ah-hav-ta l'ray-ah-cha kah-moh-cha. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. And you shall love your neighbor as yourself. Yeshua taught us that all of the Torah and the Prophets depend on these two commandments.

KADDISH: ACKNOWLEDGING THAT GOD IS HOLY

Glorified and sanctified be God's great Name throughout the world which He has created according to His will. May He establish His kingdom in your lifetime and during your days and within the life of the entire house of Israel, speedily and soon; and say, amayn! May His great Name be blessed forever and to all eternity. Blessed and praised, glorified and exalted, extolled and honored, adored and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He, who is beyond all the blessings and hymns, praises and consolations that are ever spoken in the world; and say, amayn! May there be abundant peace from Heaven and life for us and for all Israel; and say, amayn! He who creates peace in His Heavenly Heights, may He make peace for us and for all Israel; and say, amayn!

AMIDAH

אֲדָ נְיִ שְׁפָתַי תִּפְתָּח וּפִי יַגִּיד תְּהִלָּתְךָ!

O Lord, open my lips, that my mouth may declare Your praise!

1. Blessed are You, O Lord our God, and God of our fathers; God of Abraham, God of Isaac, and God of Jacob; wonderful Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah; the great, mighty and awesome God, the most high God, who bestows steadfast love and goodness and is Master of all, and remembers the good deeds of the fathers, and brought the Redeemer to their children, for the sake of Your Name. O our King, Helper, Savior and Shield, blessed are You O Lord, Shield of Abraham!

2. You are mighty forever, O Lord! You bring to life the dead. You are mighty to save! You sustain the living with steadfast love. You bring the dead to life with great mercy. You support the sick. You free the captives and are faithful to those who sleep in the dust! Who is like You, Lord of might? Who can be compared to You, O King? You cause death and cause life, and make salvation flourish. Yes, You are faithful to bring the dead to life. Blessed are You O Lord, who raises the dead!

3. You are infinitely holy and completely separate from sin, and altogether pure and unique from all of your creatures, and holy beings praise You every day. We pray, O Lord our God, that everything in Your creation gives You the reverence You deserve. May all of Your creation worship You, and all mankind acknowledge You! May all unite as one to do Your will with a perfect heart! For we know, O Lord our God, that dominion is Yours, that Your strength and power are supreme, and that You are to be revered above everything that You have created. And therefore, O Three-In-One God, grant honor to Your people who know You, praise to those who revere You, hope to those who seek You, and confidence to those who long for You!

Bring complete repentance to Your people Israel. Bring recognition that Yeshua is our wonderful Messiah and Lord and Savior and King! Restore joy to the land of Israel and gladness to Your city Jerusalem. May this happen speedily in our days! When You remove the rule of tyranny from the Earth and evil is silenced; when all wickedness vanishes like smoke, then the righteous will be glad, and the upright will rejoice and celebrate with joyous songs. And You, O Lord, will reign, You alone, over Your creation on Mount Zion, the dwelling place of Your splendor, and in Jerusalem, Your holy city, as it is written: "The Lord will reign forever; your God, O Zion, will rule all generations. Praise the Lord." You are holy, and You are awesome, and there is no God besides You! Blessed are You O Lord, the holy King!

4. You chose the nation of Israel for Your service from among all peoples, loving us and delighting in us. You exalted us above all nations by setting us apart for Your purposes. You drew us near, O our King, to Your service. May the faithful remnant of Israel who knows You increase! We thank You that You have welcomed many other sons and daughters from the other nations to come close to You by means of their faith in Messiah Yeshua. And You gave us in love, O Lord our God, this holy day. On this special day, O Lord our God and God of our fathers, remember us and accept us as You remember and accept our fathers, Jerusalem Your holy city, the faithful people of the house of Israel, and especially Messiah Yeshua, the son of David, through whom You bring salvation, help, victory, deliverance, truth, grace, mercy, love, happiness, peace and everlasting life!

Remember us, O Lord our God, and bless us, and be good to us! According to Your promises of salvation and mercy, redeem us, rescue us, spare us and be gracious to us; have compassion on us and deliver us, for we belong to You, and You are a gracious and compassionate God and Father and King! Our God and God of our fathers, reign over all the universe in Your glory, and in Your splendor be exalted above all the Earth! Shine forth in the majesty of Your conquering power over all the inhabitants of Your world, that every created thing may realize that You made it, and every creature understand that You created it, so that all who have breath may declare:

יְהוָה אֱלֹהֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל מֶלֶךְ, וּמְלֻכּוֹתָו בְּכֹל מְשָׁלָה!
Adonai Elohay Yisrael Meh-lech, u-mal-chu-toh bah-kol mah-she-lah!

The Lord God of Israel is King, and His kingdom rules over all! Our God and God of our fathers, set us apart by Your commandments, fill us with Your Holy Spirit, enlarge our faith and enable us to fulfill Your word! Satisfy us with Your goodness, and fill us with happiness because we know the salvation that comes only through Messiah Yeshua! Purify our hearts so that we can truly know and serve You, for You O Lord our God, are the only true God! Blessed are You O Lord, the great and holy King, who sets apart the nation of Israel, and especially the faithful remnant who knows Messiah, and the Gentiles who are part of Messiah's Holy Community!

5. O Lord our God, be gracious to Your people Israel and cause us to completely turn back to You! Enable us to recognize that Yeshua is the Messiah that You sent to help us! Then You will restore true worship to Your Sanctuary in Jerusalem and receive lovingly and favorably the offerings and prayers of Israel. May we soon see Your return to Jerusalem with mercy and grace. Blessed are You O Lord, who will restore Your presence to Zion!

6. We give thanks to You, for You are the Lord our God and the God of our fathers for all eternity; the Rock of our lives, and the Shield that saves through every generation! We thank You and praise You for Your constant care. We entrust our lives into Your almighty hands. Your miracles are with us daily, and Your wonderful goodness overflows at all times - evening, morning and noon. You are good and Your mercy never fails. You are compassionate and Your faithful love never ceases. May we always place our trust and hope in You. Blessed are You O Lord, to whom it is appropriate to give praise!

7. Grant abundant peace to Israel, Your special nation, and Messiah's Holy Community of Jews and Gentiles, Your special people, and be gracious and bring peace to all of mankind, for You are the only true Source of peace. May we overcome and have saving faith, and be written in the Book of Life, we and the faithful remnant of the house of Israel, and the faithful remnant from the nations, for Messiah has promised: "As for him who overcomes, I will never erase his name from the Book of Life, but will acknowledge him before My Father and His angels." Blessed are You O Lord, who makes peace and gives everlasting life!

THE ANCIENT AVODAH SERVICE

As we recall the ancient Avodah service, may we renew ourselves in repentance to the God of Israel, who sent Messiah Yeshua, who made Himself the atonement for our sins.

In the days when the Temple stood in Jerusalem, the Cohen HaGadol, the High Priest, would consecrate himself before Yom Kippur. For seven days he would read aloud the Scriptures and realize his own need for righteousness and repentance. He dared not pray for forgiveness for others unless he himself had been cleansed of unrighteousness.

On the eve of Yom Kippur, the rules and procedures for the atonement ritual were read to the High Priest. The priest trembled with his grave responsibility. At dawn, he bathed himself and put on the golden vestments of his office. With the assistance of the priests, the daily sacrifices were offered while the Levites chanted psalms of praise. Then, the High Priest put off his golden vestments and clothed himself in simple robes of white linen. And the High Priest prayed: "O Lord, I have sinned, I have transgressed, I have committed iniquity before You, both I and my household. O Lord, I beseech You by Your Name, make atonement for the sins, the transgressions, and the iniquities that I have committed, both I and my household. As it is written in Your Torah, 'For on this day shall atonement be made for you, to cleanse you from all your sins before the Lord.'"

And when the priests and the people who stood in the Temple court heard the glorious and awesome Name from the mouth of the High Priest, they bowed in worship and fell on their faces and declared, "Blessed be His glorious Name, whose kingdom is forever!"

Then the High Priest went to the eastern court of the Temple where two goats stood ready to serve as the atonement for the children of Israel. A golden lot was drawn from a casket for the first goat, a sin offering to the Lord. A thread, scarlet for the stain of our sins, was tied to the head of the second goat, the scapegoat. Then the High Priest prayed and confessed his sins and those of his fellow priests, again beseeching God by His Name.

And when the priests and the people who stood in the Temple court heard the glorious and awesome Name from the mouth of the High Priest, they bowed in worship and fell on their faces and declared, "Blessed be His glorious Name, whose kingdom is forever!"

The High Priest laid his hands on the scapegoat and confessed all the sins of the people. "Now let the goat be consigned to destruction! Drive it into the wilderness and over the rocks of Azazel! Let its bones be scattered like a potter's shards!" Then the High Priest passed through the veil in front of the Holy of Holies and came into the very presence of our Lord and King. He entered that holy place with an offering of incense and with the blood of a bull, a sin offering for himself. He went before the Ark of the Covenant and sprinkled the blood of the bull once upon the Ark Covering and seven times before it. He then re-entered the Holy of Holies with the blood of the goat, the sin offering for the Congregation of Israel and sprinkled its blood as he sprinkled the blood of the bull. Finally, the High Priest prayed for the nation of Israel: "O Lord, we have sinned, we have transgressed, we have committed iniquity before You. O Lord, I beseech You by Your Name, make atonement for the sins, the transgressions, and the iniquities that we, Your people Israel, have committed against You. As it is written in Your Torah, 'For on this day shall atonement be made for you to cleanse you from all your sins before the Lord.'"

And when the priests and the people who stood in the Temple court heard the glorious and awesome Name from the mouth of the High Priest, they bowed in worship and fell on their faces and declared, "Blessed be His glorious Name, whose kingdom is forever!"

And the High Priest was filled with awe and prolonged the utterance of the Name until the people finished their blessing. Then he turned to them and said, "You shall be purified! And the Lord, in His goodness has forgiven the congregation of Israel." Thus, the High Priest placed himself in the gap separating an errant people from a righteous, holy God. It was a frightful moment for the nation and for the High Priest. For if his repentance was insufficient, the Lord Himself would strike the High Priest dead, and there might be no atonement for the children of Israel. When the High Priest emerged, his face shone like the sun. And when the messenger who drove the scapegoat into the wilderness reported that the scarlet thread had become white like snow, from the people a cry of triumph arose, a song of joy and gladness: How blessed is such a people, happy is the people whose God is the Lord! The hope of the people had been fulfilled. Their salvation came upon them like a cool breeze during the heat of harvest. They were washed and cleansed of their sins, knowing full well that the One who cleansed them is the Fountain of Living Water whose well can never run dry. They felt renewed, even as God's mercies are new every morning. The praises of God rang from their throats, and a new song was in their mouths.

We too can rejoice in our atonement and salvation and the sure hope we have of eternal life. Although the Temple no longer stands, we have an even greater High Priest. For just as the priests of old prepared their bodies for this special service, so God prepared a sinless body for Messiah. It is written, "You are a priest forever, according to the order of Malkee-tzehdek" and, "therefore, He is also able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them. For such a High Priest was fitting for us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and has become higher than the Heavens; who does not need daily, as those High Priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for His own sins and then for the sin of the people, for this He did once for all when offered up Himself."

We have an even greater sacrifice, for as the scapegoat wore a crimson thread, symbolic of our fathers' sins, so the Son of God poured out His blood as He bore the sins of all humanity. But Messiah came not with the blood of goats and calves, but with His own blood He entered the Most Holy Place once for all, having obtained eternal redemption. For if the blood of bulls and goats sanctifies for the purifying of the flesh, how much more shall the blood of the Messiah cleanse our conscience from dead works to serve the living God?"

We have an even greater atonement. For just as the ancient priests emerged alive from the Most Holy Place, so Messiah Yeshua emerged alive from the grave, and through His death overcame death. Therefore, brothers, having a High Priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. For happy, indeed, is the people whose God is the Lord!

AL CHAIT: THE CONFESSION OF OUR SINS

Our God and God of our fathers! Let our prayers come before You, and do not hide Yourself from our supplication. What shall we say to You who dwell on high? You know all things, both hidden and revealed. You search our hearts and thoughts. Nothing is hidden from Your sight. O Lord our God, we are not so arrogant nor hardened to say, "We are righteous and have not sinned." For truly we have sinned. We have turned away from the good commandments You have given us. Our God and God of our fathers, You are righteous and true in all Your ways, but we have done evil in Your sight. Thank You O Lord our God, that You forgive all our sins, pardon all our iniquities, and grant atonement for all our transgressions through Yeshua the Messiah. For it is written: "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

For the sin we committed in Your sight by sinning willfully, and for the sin we committed in ignorance. For the sin we committed in Your sight by slandering others, and for the sin of gossip. For the sin we committed in Your sight by neglecting our responsibilities, and for the sin of selfishness. For the sin we committed in Your sight by indulging evil thoughts, and for the sin of lust. For the sin we committed in Your sight by being lukewarm, and for the sin of not loving You with all our hearts and souls.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by not hungering and thirsting for righteousness, and for the sin of not being poor in spirit. For the sin we committed in Your sight by not being merciful, and for the sin of withholding when we could have given. For the sin we committed in Your sight by speaking foolish words, and for the sin of not controlling our tongues. For the sin we committed in Your sight by not loving our neighbors, and for the sin of not blessing our enemies. For the sin we committed in Your sight by not turning the other cheek, and for the sin of practicing our righteousness before men. For the sin we committed in Your sight by being proud, and for the sin of lack of zeal. For the sin we committed in Your sight knowingly, and for the sin we committed unknowingly. For all these, O God of forgiveness, forgive us, pardon us, and grant us atonement, in Yeshua the Messiah!

וְעַל כָּל־אֲלוֹהַּ סְלִיחוֹת, סְלַח לָנוּ, מְחַל לָנוּ, כַּפֵּר לָנוּ, בְּיֵשׁוּעַ הַמָּשִׁיחַ!
V'al ku-lam Eh-lo-ha s'lee-chot, s'lach lanu, m'chal lanu, kaper lanu b'Yeshua ha-Mashiach!

For the sin we committed in Your sight by not walking as Yeshua walked, and for the sin of not being filled with Your Spirit. For the sin we committed in Your sight by loving the world, and for the sin of loving the things in the world. For the sin we committed in Your sight by putting other things before You, and for the sin of idolatry. For the sin we committed in Your sight by not praying at all times, and for the sin of not being thankful. For the sin we committed in Your sight by not being quick to forgive, and for the sin of holding resentments.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by not going the second mile, and for the sin of impatience. For the sin we committed in Your sight by not doing unto others as we would have them do unto us, and for the sin of greed. For the sin we committed in Your sight by being anxious about the things of this life, and for the sin of not trusting You to provide for all of our needs. For the sin we committed in Your sight by setting our minds on the things below, and for the sin of not setting our minds on things above. For all these, O God of forgiveness, forgive us, pardon us, and grant us atonement, in Yeshua the Messiah!

וְעַל כָּל־אֲלוֹהַּ סְלִיחוֹת, סְלַח לָנוּ, מְחַל לָנוּ, כַּפֵּר לָנוּ, בְּיֵשׁוּעַ הַמָּשִׁיחַ!
V'al ku-lam Eh-lo-ha s'lee-chot, s'lach lanu, m'chal lanu, kaper lanu b'Yeshua ha-Mashiach!

THE ASSURANCE WE HAVE OF ATONEMENT

How blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. How blessed is the man to whom the Lord does not impute iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit! If You O Lord should mark iniquities, O Lord who could stand? But there is forgiveness with You, that You may be feared.

I will cleanse them from all the sins they have committed against Me and will forgive all their sins of rebellion against Me. You are a God of forgiveness, gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, and abounding in love.

I, even I, am the one who wipes out your transgressions for My own sake; and I will not remember your sins. I have wiped out your transgressions like a thick cloud, and your sins like a heavy mist. Return to Me, for I have redeemed you. As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.

This is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel. I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more. Bless the Lord O my soul, and forget none of His benefits; who pardons all your iniquities. He will again have compassion on us; He will tread our iniquities underfoot. You will hurl all our iniquities into the depths of the sea. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return to the Lord, and He will have compassion on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.

He was pierced through for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon Him and by His wounds we are healed. By His knowledge the Righteous One, My Servant, will make many righteous, as He will bear their iniquities. He poured out Himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet He Himself bore the sins of many and interceded for the transgressors.

God made Messiah who knew no sin, to be a sin offering on our behalf, that we might become the righteousness of God when we are join to Yeshua. He is the atonement for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

Through this Man is preached to you the forgiveness of sins: and by Him all that believe are made righteous from all things, from which you could not be made righteous by the Torah of Moses.

YIZKOR: REMEMBERING THOSE WHO HAVE DIED

Lord, what is man that You take knowledge of him? Or the son of man that You are mindful of him? Man is like a breath; his days are like a passing shadow. In the morning he flourishes. In the evening he withers and fades away. The days of our lives are seventy years. And if by reason of strength they are eighty years, yet their boast is only labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away. So teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom. Merciful Father in whose hand are the souls of all the living and all the dead, may we find comfort as we remember those who have passed into eternity. Let our remembrance be true, undimmed by time. Help us to come to You with an open heart, bring to You our love and gratitude as well as our loss, sorrow and grief. As we remember, let us trust always in Your perfect justice and Your infinite mercy.

REMEMBERING THOSE WHO FELL ASLEEP FAITHFUL TO YESHUA

O Lord, may I remember the life of who has gone to his/her eternal home. May his/her eternal rest bring You glory and may he/she rejoice in Your presence. May the memory of him/her be a blessing among us.

REMEMBERING THOSE WHO DIED WITHOUT KNOWING YESHUA

O Lord, may I remember the life of who passed into eternity. May I remember him/her for good, in gratitude to You for bringing him/her into my life. May the remembrance of him/her inspire me to serve You in truth and be quick to share the message of hope in Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

EL MALEH RACHAMIM: GOD FULL OF COMPASSION

El Maleh Rachamim, O God, You are full of mercy and compassion. You are the righteous judge of the living and the dead. We would hope that the souls of all our loved ones who we remember today might be kept in Your presence among those who are holy and pure, whose light shines in the firmament. O Heavenly Father, may our memory of them be without bitterness. May You bring us comfort in our remembrance of them, and may our remembrance inspire us to serve You in truth. For if we believe that Yeshua died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Yeshua.

"For the Lord Himself will descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the shofar of God. And the dead in Messiah will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the air to meet the Lord in the air, and thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore comfort one another with these words."

PSALM 23

Adonai Roh-ee, the Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His Name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

MOURNER'S KADDISH

Glorified and sanctified be God's great Name throughout the world which He has created according to His will. May He establish His Kingdom in your lifetime and during your days and within the life of the entire house of Israel, speedily and soon; and say, amayn. May His great Name be blessed forever and to all eternity. Blessed and praised, glorified and exalted, extolled and honored, adored and lauded be the Name of the Holy One, blessed be He, who is beyond all the blessings and hymns, praises and consolations that are ever spoken in the world; and say, amayn. May there be abundant peace from Heaven and life for us and for all Israel; and say, amayn. He who creates peace in His Heavenly Heights, may He make peace for us and for all Israel; and say, amayn!

TEKIAT SHOFAR: BLOWING THE SHOFAR

And the Lord spoke to Moses saying, speak to the sons of Israel saying, in the seventh month on the first day of the month, you shall have a rest, a reminder by blowing of shofars, a holy convocation. You shall not do any laborious work, but you shall present an offering by fire to the Lord.

וַיְדַבֵּר יְיָ אֶל מֹשֶׁה לֵאמֹר דַּבֵּר אֶל בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל לֵאמֹר בַּחֹדֶשׁ הַשְּׁבִיעִי בְּאֶחָד
לַחֹדֶשׁ יְהִי לָכֶם שַׁבָּתוֹן זְכוֹרֹן תְּרוּעָה מִקְרָא קֹדֶשׁ. כָּל מְלָאכָת עֵבֶדָה ל' אֵת תַּעֲשׂוּ
וְהִקְרַבְתֶּם אֲשֶׁה לַיהוָה.

TWELVE REASONS WE BLOW THE SHOFAR

1. When we hear the shofar we are to remember God's Kingship. In ancient Israel the new king's reign was announced with the shofar. When we blow the shofar we remember that Yeshua is King of kings and Lord of lords, and we are to be His obedient subjects.

2. When we hear the shofar we are to remember to be God's worshipers. God seeks those who will worship Him in spirit and in truth. The shofar heads the list of instruments used to worship God, as it is written: "Praise Him with the shofar."

3. When we hear the shofar we are to remember our need to repent. "Blow a shofar in Zion and sound an alarm on My holy mountain... consecrate a fast, proclaim a solemn assembly. Return to Me with all your heart, and with fasting, weeping and mourning, and rend your heart and not your garments."

4. When we hear the shofar we are to remember the faithfulness of the Patriarchs. The ram's horn reminds us of the "Akedah," the binding and Abraham's intended sacrifice of Isaac. Because of this act of faith, God promised to bless the Jewish people and give us victory over all of our enemies. The shofar is a reminder of our covenant with God because of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and that the Jewish people are beloved by God for the sake of the Fathers.

5. When we hear the shofar we are to remember the binding of Messiah Yeshua, the fulfillment of the Akedah. Abraham prophesied that God would provide for Himself the Lamb for the burnt offering. Yeshua was offered up as the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world on that same spot two thousand years later.

6. When we hear the shofar we are to remember the heavenly shofar that accompanied the revelation of the giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai. The shofar reminds us that all Scripture is divinely inspired by God and we are to pay attention to every word that comes from the mouth of God.

7. When we hear the shofar we are to remember the words of the prophets, as it is written: "I set watchmen over you saying, 'listen to the sound of the shofar.'" Prophets are like a shofar which warn of danger. Israel was judged for ignoring the prophets. We must pay attention to the prophets of Israel, especially Messiah Yeshua, Israel's greatest prophet, or we will suffer very serious consequences.

8. When we hear the shofar we are to remember that we are in state of war. "Near is the great day of the Lord, near and coming very quickly... a day of shofar and battle cry." We are in the middle of a raging cosmic battle for the souls of human beings. Satan and his fallen angels are fighting for people to share their destiny. God and Messiah are fighting for people to share the Son of God's destiny.

9. When we hear the shofar we are to remember the eventual end of all warfare. The shofar was blown at the end of battle. The shofar is a reminder that final victory for those who are faithful to God and Messiah is ahead! When Messiah returns, He will end all wars, battles, and injustice, and usher in a thousand years of peace on Earth, followed by eternal life in the New Heavens and the New Earth and the New Jerusalem!

10. When we hear the shofar we are to remember the resurrection that will take place at Messiah's return. "We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed." "For the Lord Himself will descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the shofar of God. And the dead in Messiah will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the air to meet the Lord in the air, and thus we shall always be with the Lord."

11. When we hear the shofar we are to be reminded of the Jewish people's restoration to the Land of Israel. When Messiah Yeshua returns, He will gather all of Israel's exiles. "You will be gathered up one by one, O sons of Israel. It will come about also in that day that a great shofar will be blown."

12. Finally, when we sound the shofar we are asking God to remember us. The sounding of the shofar is like a prayer that ascends to God's throne saying, "O Lord, may the sound of our shofar ascend before Your throne. Remember Your covenants, forgive us, save us, and deliver us."

BLESSING FOR HEARING THE SHOFAR

Blessed are You O Lord our God, King of the universe, who has sanctified us with Your commandments and commanded us to hear the sounding of the shofar.

בָּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ נֹה אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו וְצִוָּנוּ לְשָׁמוֹעַ קוֹל שׁוֹפָר.

O King, receive with mercy and favor our proclamation of Your Kingship!

ZICHRONOT: GOD REMEMBERS HIS COVENANTS

God made a covenant with Noah: God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him saying, "Now behold, I Myself do establish My covenant with you, and with your descendants after you; and with every creature that is with you."

God made a covenant with Abraham. The Lord told Abraham, "I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your descendants after you. And I will give to you and to your descendants after you all the land of Canaan for an everlasting possession." He also swore to Abraham, "I will greatly bless you, and I will greatly multiply your seed as the stars of the heavens, and as the sand which is on the seashore; and your seed will possess the gate of your enemies. And in your seed all the nations of the Earth will be blessed."

God made a covenant with the Jewish people during the time of Moses: He said to us, "If you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be My own possession among all the peoples, for all the Earth is mine; and you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation."

God made a covenant with David: "I have made a covenant with My chosen one; I have sworn to David My servant, I will establish your seed forever, and build up your throne to all generations," promising that the Messiah of Israel and the Savior of the world, would come through him, and He would rule over Israel and the nations forever and ever!

God made a new and everlasting covenant through Messiah Yeshua, the son of Noah, the son of Abraham, the Prophet like Moses, and the son of David: "I will appoint You as a covenant to the people, as a light to the nations." "'Behold the days are coming' declares the Lord, 'when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah. This is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days declares the Lord. I will put my Torah within them, and on their heart will I write it; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more.'"

SHOFAROT

For the Lord Himself will descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the shofar of God. It will come about also in that day that a great shofar will be blown; and those who were perishing in the land of Assyria and who were scattered in the land of Egypt will come and worship the Lord in the holy mountain at Jerusalem. And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem coming down from God out of Heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things have passed away.

Our God, and God of our fathers, sound the great shofar for our freedom, lift up the banner to gather our exiles, bring our scattered ones among the nations near to You and gather them from the ends of the Earth. Lead us with joy into Zion Your city, and to Jerusalem, the place of Your sanctuary, with everlasting joy. You O Lord, hear the sound of the shofar and give heed to the trumpet blast; there is none like You! Blessed are You O Lord, who in mercy hears the shofar sounds of Your people!

YOU WHO ARE ASLEEP, WAKE UP!

You who are asleep, wake up! You who are in a trance, arise! Search your doings and repent; remember your Creator! You who forget constant truth in vanities of the hour, and indulge all year in trifles which can't profit or save, look rightly into your souls! Amend your ways and your deeds.

Let each one of you give up his evil course and purpose. Get up sleeper! Arise from the dead, and Messiah will shine on you. Pay careful attention to how you conduct your life. Live wisely, not unwisely.

YOU ARE OUR GOD

You are our God and we are Your people. You are our Father and we are Your children. You are our Master and we are Your servants. You are our Shepherd and we are Your flock. You are our Head and we are Your body. You are our Vine and we are Your branches. You are our Creator and we are Your work. You are our Potter and we are Your clay. You are our King and we are Your subjects. You are our Bridegroom and we are Your bride.

We are weak and You are our Strength. We are defenseless and You are our Fortress. We are oppressed and You are our Deliverer. We are wounded and You are our Healer. We are hungry and You are the Bread of Life. We are thirsty and You are Living Water. We are weary and You are our Sabbath Rest. We are evil and You are our Righteousness. We are foolish and You are our Wisdom. We were in darkness and You are our Light. We were lost but You are the Way. We were deceived but You are the Truth. We were dead but You are the Life. We were in bondage but You are our Redemption. We are nothing and You are our all in all. We are Your worshipers and You are our God.

ACT FOR THE SAKE OF YOUR NAME

Adonai Elohaynu, You are merciful, You are gracious. Lord, we are in deep darkness, act for the sake of Your truth; act for Your greatness!

O Lord our God, we have sinned and fallen short of Your glory, so act for Your majesty, act for the sake of Your faithfulness; act for Your fame; act for the sake of Your kindness, act for Your glory!

Adonai Elohaynu, we are in desperate need of Your salvation, so act for Your goodness! Act for the sake of Your excellence; act for Your renown, act for the sake of Your great compassion!

O Lord our God, we are dead in our trespasses and sins, so act for the sake of Your goodness; act for Your holiness!

Adonai Elohaynu, the people of Israel are perishing for lack of knowledge, and most of the nations are too, so act for Your truth, act for the sake of Your mercy, act for Your covenants!

O Lord our God, we are your special people, so act for the sake of Your friends, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Act for the sake of Moses and Aaron. Act for the sake of David and Solomon. Act for the sake of Your servants who were killed for Your Name. Act for the sake of Your Son, and our Lord and Savior, Messiah Yeshua. O Lord our God, act for the sake of Your great Name!

ADONAI, HU HA-ELOHIM: THE LORD, HE IS GOD

This was first said when Elijah called Israel to Mount Carmel where they said:

יהוה יהוה הוא קאָלֹהִים! Adonai, Hu HaElohim! The Lord He is God!

Even earlier Abraham our father realized:

יהוה יהוה הוא קאָלֹהִים! Adonai, Hu HaElohim! The Lord He is God!

During the Exodus and at Mount Sinai the people of Israel understood that:

יהוה יהוה הוא קאָלֹהִים! Adonai, Hu HaElohim! The Lord He is God!

Babylonia's King Nebuchadnezzar finally realized that:

יהוה יהוה הוא קאָלֹהִים! Adonai, Hu HaElohim! The Lord He is God!

Messiah Yeshua's death and resurrection demonstrated that:

יהוה יהוה הוא קאָלֹהִים! Adonai, Hu HaElohim! The Lord He is God!

Because of King Yeshua, the Son of God, millions of Jews and Gentiles know that:

יהוה יהוה הוא קאָלֹהִים! Adonai, Hu HaElohim! The Lord He is God!

At Messiah's return all Israel will proclaim:

יהוה יהוה הוא קאָלֹהִים! Adonai, Hu HaElohim! The Lord He is God!

One day every knee will bow, of those who are in Heaven, and on Earth, and under the Earth, and every tongue will confess that Messiah Yeshua is Lord, to the glory of God the Father: יהוה יהוה הוא קאָלֹהִים!

יהוה יהוה הוא קאָלֹהִים! Adonai, Hu HaElohim! The Lord He is God!

Together we affirm today: יהוה יהוה הוא קאָלֹהִים! Adonai, Hu HaElohim! The Lord He is God!

ADON OLAM: LORD OF THE UNIVERSE

He is the eternal Lord who reigned before any being was created. At the time when all was made by His will, He was at once acknowledged as King. And at the end, when all shall cease to be, the revered God alone shall still be King. He was, He is, and He shall be in glorious eternity. He is

One, and there is no other to compare to Him, to place beside Him. He is without beginning, without end; power and dominion belong to Him. He is my God, my living Redeemer, my stronghold in times of distress. He is my guide and my refuge, my share of bliss the day I call. To Him I entrust my spirit when I sleep and when I wake. As long as my soul is with my body the Lord is with me; I am not afraid.
